Dr. L. Britt Wilson is Professor of Physiology in the Department of Pharmacology, Physiology, and Neuroscience at the University of South Carolina School of Medicine, Columbia, SC. In addition, he is the Course Director for Medical Physiology (First year medical students). Dr. Wilson received his bachelor’s degree in biology from West Texas State University, Canyon, Texas and his Ph.D. in physiology from Louisiana State University Medical Center, New Orleans, LA. Dr. Wilson has received numerous teaching awards including the Medical 1 (M1) Teacher of the Year, the O’Neill Barrett Teaching Excellence Award, and the Teaching Advancement Award. He serves on many committees for USC, including being the former Chair of the Curriculum Committee and the Committee that developed guidelines for non-tenure track faculty. He has multiple scientific and educational publications and abstracts.

SESSION NAME: Concurrent Workshop I: Professional Development

PRESENTATION TITLE: Compiling an Educator Portfolio for Promotion and Tenure

Educator tracks in medical schools are becoming more common. In this presentation we will discuss ways to create an educator portfolio for promotion and tenure. The look of this portfolio should accentuate the guidelines of your institution. Thus, if you are at an institution that has an educator track, please consider bringing the guidelines to facilitate our discussion.