

Journals of the American Physiological Society (APS)

Thank you for selecting the American Physiological Society's AuthorChoice option for your article which has been accepted for publication. You will need to provide payment information for the fee ($2,000 for research articles; $3,000 for review articles) on this form and return it within 48 hours of acceptance. The open access fee is to be paid now. Other author fees, such as page charges and color fees, will be invoiced at page proof stage. If you are using an institutional purchase order, please send a copy with the form.

After processing your AuthorChoice payment, your article (including text, figures and supplemental material) will be made available free online to individuals and institutions. Payment of the fee also allows authors to deposit their research articles in PMC, when requested or mandated by their funding agencies. To process your payment, please fax this form to Carolyn Villemez, APS Publications, at 301.634.7243 or mail it to APS Publications, 9650 Rockville pike, Bethesda, MD 20814.
