

2008 Undergraduate Summer Research Fellowship

Meet the UGSRF Team

During the Fellowship, you'll get to know many people at The American Physiological Society who work together to make the UGSRF program run smoothly. The APS Education Office manages the program. Following are the folks who will be your main contacts throughout the Fellowship as well as a brief description of their role in the program. Please feel free to contact any one of us with questions or just to say "Hi."

Marsha Lakes Matyas, Ph.D.

mmatyas@the-aps.org

APS Director of Education Programs

Marsha has been with the APS for over ten years and in this time has built the UGSRF program into the undergraduate experience it is today. She is the UGSRF program director.

Melinda E. Lowy

mloy@the-aps.org

Higher Education Program Coordinator

As the UGSRF program coordinator, Melinda is the day-to-day contact who keeps the program moving along. You will hear from Melinda about various program components and other opportunities you will have as an undergraduate student working in physiology. You can contact her with any questions you might have.

Scarletta Whitsett

swhitsett@the-aps.org

Project Asst.

Scarletta is the first point of contact. You will receive some information from Scarletta via email from time to time. She is the one who keeps us organized and on task. You may contact Scarletta if you have questions about the program.

Brooke Bruthers

bbruthers@the-aps.org

Office Manager

Also known as the "travel guru." Brooke handles the financial and logistical aspects of the UGSRF program, the travel arrangements, and stipend payments in particular.

Janet Jackson

jjackson@the-aps.org

Office Assistant

Janet also keeps us organized and "in touch." She is also a point of contact and knows where the rest of us are at any time.
