ASSISTANT PROFESSOR – Continuing Track
Biology Department

AUGUSTANA UNIVERSITY, a selective, private, liberal arts institution in Sioux Falls, SD invites applications for a continuing-track Assistant Professor position in the Biology Department beginning September 2018. This primarily teaching position will encompass a variety of classes that augment current departmental offerings. Candidates are required have a Ph.D. in a biologically-related field by the start of the position.

TEACHING EXPECTATIONS: Courses will be assigned based on departmental needs from semester to semester, but will generally include introductory biology courses for majors, introductory biology courses for non-majors, and courses in human anatomy and physiology. The candidate’s expertise and interests can also shape class loads. While experience in any and all of these areas is a plus, a demonstrated dedication to undergraduate education, a willingness to be flexible, and a commitment to innovative and excellent teaching are the primary expectations for this position. Student academic advising is also an expectation as a part of the position. Summer teaching opportunities outside of the base teaching load (typically two lectures and four labs each semester and one lecture over the January term) are also available. Research is not an expectation for the position.

SALARY: Salary is competitive and dependent upon qualifications; excellent fringe benefits are included.

CLOSING DATE: Review of applications will begin November 20, 2017 and continue until the position has been filled.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Please send a letter of application; a statement of teaching philosophy, scientific expertise and experience, and commitment to diversity (how you worked to promote diversity, equity and inclusion in your previous position and how you plan to continue to do so at Augustana); copies of undergrad and graduate transcripts; a curriculum vita; a completed Augustana University employment application; and three letters of reference electronically to humanresources@augie.edu. Official web site: www.augie.edu.

Contact Search Committee Chair with questions: Dr. Mark Larson, mark.larson@augie.edu, Associate Professor and Chair, Biology Department, 605.274.4700.

Augustana University is an Equal Opportunity Employer/Affirmative Action/Title IX Employer.
