Faculty Position in Biology

Full-time, tenure-track position

QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. preferred (ABD or master’s considered) in vertebrate anatomy and physiology or a related field. Demonstrate excellence in teaching.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teach undergraduate courses in human anatomy and physiology with associated labs. Depending on expertise, teach additional courses in invertebrate zoology, genetics, developmental biology, or general education biology. Actively participate in scholarly activity, student advising, student recruiting, and campus and community service.

COMPENSATION: Commensurate with education and experience within the university pay scale.

APPOINTMENT: Fall Semester 2019

DEADLINE: Review of applications begins Dec. 7, 2018, and continues until position is filled.

APPLICATION MATERIALS: Applications are considered complete when the following materials have been received at the office indicated below:

- letter of interest
- curriculum vita
- three letters of reference (submitted directly from referee)
- copies of transcripts
- completed supplementary application

CONTACT: Elaine Suderman
Assistant to the Academic Dean
Bluffton University
1 University Drive
Bluffton, OH 45817-2104
sudermane@bluffton.edu
419-358-3360

Employment decisions are based on merit and university needs, and not on race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other status protected by law. As a religious institution, Bluffton University expressly reserves its rights to appoint faculty and staff who share a commitment to the Christian faith which is consistent with the Mennonite/Anabaptist beliefs of the university’s founding and supporting church.