Professor/Associate/Assistant Professor, Charleston Southern University
Charleston Southern University (CSU) is seeking candidates for two faculty in the Department of Physical Therapy. These positions are full-time, 12-month, tenure-track faculty members with rank commiserate with experience. We are looking for candidates to contribute to curriculum development and implementation, with evidence of specialty in one or more of the following areas: physiology, pathophysiology, exercise science, gross anatomy, or neuroscience. Applicants do not need to be a Physical or Occupational Therapist.

Qualified candidates will exemplify Christian principles through evidence-based clinical care while serving their community and profession. The PT Department joins the Physician Assistant program, Kinesiology, Public Health, and Athletic Training in the College of Health Science. Teaching will be the primary responsibility of the successful candidates. Remaining effort will be divided across scholarship and service. Opportunities for clinical practice exist if desired.

Minimum Qualifications:
- Terminal academic or clinical doctoral degree (PhD, EdD, DSc, DHS, DPT, etc) from a regionally accredited institution. Individuals who are “all but dissertation” (ABD) will be considered; however, the degree must be awarded by Fall 2021.
- Contemporary expertise in teaching one or more of the following content areas: physiology, pathophysiology, gross anatomy, or neuroscience.
- Strong communication, organization, interpersonal, and problem-solving skills.
- Design and conduct independent and/or collaborative research in clinical education or related areas.
