The Department of Biological and Allied Health Sciences at Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania is seeking a tenure-track Assistant Professor beginning Fall 2020 (Job # 24900-19-116). Seeking an energetic and innovative colleague who will actively engage with our undergraduate and graduate students in the classroom and research setting. Teaching responsibilities may include introductory courses in biology, human anatomy and physiology, health science electives, and upper-level/graduate courses related to field of expertise. Other responsibilities include establishing an active research program involving undergraduate and masters students. Research area is open. The department is equipped for cell/tissue culture, confocal microscopy, small animal, and molecular biology research. The successful candidate must be able to provide advisement in biology and allied health programs. Earned doctorate in biology or closely related discipline required. University teaching experience and coursework in human anatomy and physiology, introductory biology, and related subjects preferred. Demonstrated record of research productivity (postdoctoral experience, student mentorship, publications, grant proposals, presentations) preferred. A demonstrated ability to work with diverse populations is preferred.

Finalist(s) for the position must communicate well and successfully complete an interview process, including a teaching demonstration and research seminar, as judged by the department faculty. A complete application includes a cover letter, statement of teaching philosophy, one-page statement of research interests, curriculum vitae, copies of all undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and 3 letters of recommendation. Submit application materials (except letters of recommendation) online at http://agency.govemmentjobs.com/bloomuedu/default.cfm. Arrange to have 3 letters of recommendation sent directly to jvenditt@bloomu.edu. For full consideration, completed applications must be received by December 1, 2019. Position will remain open until filled. Questions may be directed to Search & Screen Committee Chair, Dr. Jennifer Venditti, jvenditt@bloomu.edu.

Recommendation for hiring is needed from a majority of the regular, full-time department faculty.

Prior to a final offer of employment, the selected candidate will be required to submit to a background check including, but not limited to, employment verification, educational and other credential verification, Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearance and criminal background. Completing this search is contingent upon available funding.
